

Other Voices to lighten up February nights

THE latest series of acclaimed music programme Other Voices is to begin its weekly broadcast on RTÉ Two from Wednesday, February 3.

The recordings for this year's series took place in St James Church in Dingle, Co. Kerry, in early December and those lucky enough to bag a much coveted ticket were treated to a myriad of intimate performances from some of the biggest names in music including Snow Patrol, The xx, Richard Hawley, Suede front man Brett Anderson, Mercury Music prize winner Speech Debelle, Temper Trap and Imelda May.

Part of this year's series is The Other Voices Other Room which is supported by the Irish Music Rights Organisation (IMRO). Each programme will feature a new Irish artist, recorded in The IMRO Other Room including Valerie Francis, 202s, The Chakras, O Emperor and Low Mountain.
