

Pick of the week

Other Voices (Wednesday, RTE2, 11.45pm)

For the acts that participate, it is as sacred as the building in which it is filmed. Other Voices, recorded in St James's Church in Dingle, Co Kerry, has attracted some of rock and pop's big names down the years, and this year's series is no different. The first programme features Brooklyn outfit the National, pictured, who, along with other artists in the series, such as Richard Hawley and Jarvis Cocker, journeyed across a snowbound Ireland last December just to perform. Presented by the DJ Annie Mac, the show also includes interview slots and sets from emerging Irish acts.
