

Seven Days

NIGEL ANDREW'S guide to the week's TV

WEDNESDAY

Madagascar 8PM, BBC2 ★★★★★

ENDS
THIS WEEK

The final episode of this eye-opening series focuses on the arid west and south of the island, where, in some years, it might not rain at all.

MasterChef 9PM, BBC1 ★★★★★

The 20 amateur chefs chosen at the auditions must prepare one magnificent dish to get them through to the next stage – but by tomorrow night, they will number just 12...

A History Of Ancient Britain

9PM, BBC2 ★★★

Neil Oliver explores the 'age of cosmology', when Neolithic Britons built stone circles, passage tombs – and Stonehenge itself – and a priestly elite travelled from site to site.

The Real King's Speech

9PM, CH4 ★★★★★

Drawing on letters between George VI and his speech therapist, Lionel Logue, this fascinating documentary sheds new light on the remarkable story that inspired the film.

The Model Agency 10PM, CH4 ★★★★★

NEW SERIES

This horribly gripping observational series follows the work of top model agency Premier Model Management. It's a pretty ghastly business, and looks all the worse in the light of the chastening Beauty And The Beast (8pm).

Other Voices 11.45PM, RTÉ TWO ★★★

Another instalment of the always excellent live music series, with Marina and the Diamonds and O Emperor two of the acts braving the chilly church to play a few tunes for the grateful fans.
